

50 MILE RIDE

For Project Rwanda

Turn your mountain biking passion into something that will make a life-changing impact for coffee-growing families in Rwanda.

Join us for another epic adventure, as together with hundreds of MTB buddies we celebrate our 3rd Annual Rwanda Ride!

When: Saturday March 21, 2009
Where: Staging at Cook's Corner (El Toro Rd & Santiago Canyon)
Time: Ride starts at 7:00am (Check-in begins at 6:15am)
Distance: 50 miles off-road (25 mile option starts at 8:30am)
Entry Fee: $40 in advance ($50 on-site)

New This Year - "fun ride" 5 mile option

Starts at 10:00am.

Open to riders of all ages, this easy route will travel along the paved Aliso Creek Bike Trail, from Cooks Corner down to Saddleback Church and back. Enjoy fun games for riders along the way.

Fun ride entry fee: $25 per rider.

Log on to www.50mileride.com to register and to get route details.

Tons of great raffle prizes!

Post-ride massage tables!

Sponsor booths and rider tech support!

Free t-shirts to all riders

Post-ride celebration from 2pm to 5pm

Bring your friends and family!

BBQ, Live Band, Huge Raffle

All event proceeds benefit Project Rwanda

(Find out more about the Rwanda coffee bike project at www.projectrwnda.org.)